

Spring Flower Show Next Saturday, June 5

IN Y. M. C. A. COMMUNITY ROOM, 3 TO 5 AND 7 TO 9 P. M.

SILVER OFFERING.

Very unusual weather has made it difficult to set a date for a Flower Show so that a wide range of flowers could be shown on the same day. However, on June 5th, between 12 and 1 o'clock, we are going to bring our flowers to the Y. M. C. A. and help make a showing that will be worth seeing and also educational.

Narberth's flower shows have always been interesting gatherings, and the flowers raised in our gardens are really mighty fine, and especially so when arranged for exhibition.

The Plant Exchange started last year was a fine idea, and many of us shared with our neighbors plants that we could spare and received others that added to our gardens.

Bring your spare plants, divisions or clumps of perennials or seedlings of annuals and exchange them. If they won't exchange, they can be sold to help defray expenses.

Ribbons will be awarded to winners of first, second and third prize in all classes and cash prizes for the children's classes.

Bring your flowers to the Community Room in the Y. M. C. A. next Saturday, between 12 and 1. Judging, 1 to 3. Show open 3 to 5 in the afternoon, and 7 to 9 in the evening.

AUTO DAMAGED BY FIRE.

The Fire Company was called out at 4.30 last Sunday afternoon to extinguish a fire in an automobile in Narberth Park. Before the engines arrived, however, a fire extinguisher taken from the home of Mr. Wohlert put out the blaze.

The car, belonging to Mr. William Selfridge, did not suffer much damage, other than a burned hood. The blaze was probably due to an overheated engine.

Class 19—Best exhibit of larkspur (Delphinium), dark blue.
Class 20—Best exhibit of larkspur (Delphinium), in combination with a few other flowers.

Hospital Tag Day Committee Announced

MANY MAIN LINE ORGANIZATIONS WILL CO-OPERATE, JUNIOR COMMUNITY CLUB OF NARBERTH, HELPING.

Tag Day for the Bryn Mawr Hospital, which will be Saturday, May 28, will be the beginning of a movement to make the hospital the popular institution of the Main Line.

Thousands have been benefitted by the institution, but up to this time they have not had an opportunity in a popular way to show their appreciation.

THE FIRESIDE Daylight Saving

To accord with the Philadelphia time, which will be advanced one hour on June 5th, Narberth Council in a special meeting held Thursday night passed an ordinance to that effect.

A fuller account will be printed in our next issue.

Narberth won their first game.

Mr. R. L. Beatty is making a business trip through Michigan and Illinois. John Richardson, 14 years old, violin virtuoso, will play at Narberth Choral Society concert June 10.

Read in another column about the surprise in store for Narberth on June 19.

Mr. George H. Knutsen, of Forrest avenue, has returned from an extended trip to Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Henderson, of Chestnut avenue, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

John Wilson is visiting Ralph Beatty at State College over the week end and Memorial Day.

The many friends of Mrs. Van Ness will be glad to know she is recovering from her recent illness.

Concrete posts for letter boxes have been placed at nineteen points within the delivery district of the Narberth Post Office.

Mrs. Carroll Downes and a friend returned Saturday from a delightful tour through Maryland, Delaware and West Virginia.

Mr. Fred Hermann, of Elmwood avenue, entertained his friend, Captain Hobson, U. S. N., of Merrimac fame, last week.

Miss Mary Gara motored with Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Brewer to Sung Harbor, Easton, Md., and spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Humphreys.

Mrs. Francis H. Baker, of Windsor avenue, and sister, Mrs. H. W. Walford, will sail shortly for Antwerp.

Community Club Charter Luncheon

At the Charter Luncheon of the Community Club held last Thursday, there was the usual interest and enthusiasm. Some of the members remarked that it was the most enjoyable luncheon ever held. The good spirit of the toasts lent a touch of familiarity to the hour, all going to prove the sisterly spirit which exists among the club members.

The reports of the officers and chairmen of departments were most interesting, showing a decided growth in the club activities during the past year.

The guests of honor were Mrs. R. J. Hamilton, of the Ardmore Club, who gave an original poem; Mrs. Chester Martindale, President of the West Chester Club, gave a talk on "The Advantages of a Club House." The summary of Mrs. Martindale's talk was that through having a club house you "Reach the women who need you;" "It is the best school for citizenship;" "It fills a real community need for a safe meeting place," and "It is an influential factor in community problems."

Mrs. H. Prentiss Nichols' presence is always an inspiration to the Narberth Club. She emphasized the truth expressed in Kipling's words of "It's the everlasting team work of every blooming soul," and said that club

IF IT DOESN'T RAIN ANY MORE THIS WEEK, TENNIS ASSOCIATION WILL OPEN NEW COURTS THIS SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

Somewhere in Narberth, Just-Before-Going-to-Press Time.—"Gentlemen," said Chairman W. R. D. Hall, of the Board of Trustees of the Narberth Tennis Association, addressing the mob of several hundred tennis players led by Hugh McCahill, "it all depends on the weather."

Famous Boy Violinist To Be Feature of Choral Society Concert

YOUTHFUL PRODIGY TO BE SOLOIST AT SEASON'S FINAL CONCERT ON JUNE 10TH.

The Narberth Choral Society has been able, through strong pressure, to secure John Richardson, renowned protégé of Prof. J. W. F. Leman, conductor of the Leman Symphony Orchestra, for their concert on June 10. This boy of only 14 years, one of the youthful marvels of the age, has acquired international fame. He is American born, and has been a pupil of Prof. Leman's since the age of 9. Master Richardson has appeared as soloist of most of the large symphony orchestras of the country, and handles his instrument with absolute authority, excellent quality of tone, and a most intelligent command of his bow arm. His technique is faultless, and he completely captivates his audience with his consummate skill, dash, brilliancy, and fascinating demeanor, while his playing is that of a mature artist.

This will be a most unusual treat for Narberth, and the Narberth Choral Society will receive the appreciation of the town by a rousing reception at its concert on June 10.

The plans for this last concert of the season are progressing with much enthusiasm and rapidly, which is characteristic of this organization. The orchestra is being culled into refinement by Director Niece, and will render some attractive numbers at the June concert.

Mrs. Foote, as chairman, has planned pleasing floral decorations, and Mr. Hillegas with other well-known backers of our community will have charge of the floor for the evening and constitute a reception committee.

Thanks are decidedly in order to the talented friends of the Choral Society who are graciously sketching alluring posters for the June 10 concert, among whom are Miss Marian Justice and Mr. James McKell, professional artists; Miss Emily Sibley, Miss Jeanette Gillis, Miss Estelle Cohie, and others.

The regular rehearsal of the Choral will be held on Tuesday evening next, May 31, starting with an early rehearsal of the male choruses at 7.30, at the Y. M. C. A. instead of on Monday, as the regular scheduled rehearsal falls on Decoration Day.

KEEP IN MIND JUNE 10—SCHOOL AUDITORIUM—8.15 P. M. Subscription, $1.00. Tickets from any member of the Choral or at Howard's Drug Store.

NARBERTH FIRE COMPANY GETS ENCOURAGING LETTER.

THE HAVERFORD SCHOOL, HAVERFORD, PA.

Office of the Treasurer.

May 23, 1921.

Dear Sirs:

The enclosed check for $25 is sent to express our appreciation of the very prompt manner in which you answered our "call of fire" on April 8th last, and the very efficient methods you adopted to extinguish the blaze after you arrived on the premises. We know that should the occasion again arise, you will answer our call just as promptly and efficiently.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) P. L. REPETTO.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Our Town wishes to acknowledge with thanks a contribution of twenty-five dollars from the Narberth Woman's Community Club, given "in appreciation of its help during the past year."

A CONSTANT DANGER.

One of our regular correspondents, in sending in his copy for this issue, writes as follows:

"A few arrests for speeding through the business section of Narberth would have a healthy effect on thoughtless or reckless drivers.

A regulation by Council of a speed limit of 10 miles per hour in the business section would, if enforced, be a great improvement. Cars and trucks now frequently travel at 20 or 25.

A little girl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weiman, of North Narberth avenue, was struck by an automobile on Haverford avenue last week. Fortunately the child was not seriously injured.

Traffic on the business section of Haverford avenue is such at all times as to require great care on the part of pedestrians in order to avoid being hit by machines.

Frequently drivers of cars speed over this section with little regard for those who of necessity must cross and recross the street between Essex and Narberth avenues. Some sort of traffic regulations should be provided before something very serious occurs."

AN AUSPICIOUS START.

Narberth's victory over Wayne in the first baseball game of the season is an encouraging sign.

It is difficult to predict a championship on the basis of one game, but we are hoping. Narberth is famous for her winning ball teams, and in the days before the war, a game lost would cause the fans to scan the headlines of the New York papers the next day for the feature article which could well have been expected. Times have changed, and so has Narberth, but we are looking forward to seeing history repeat itself.

MEMORIAL SERVICES SUNDAY AT ST. MARGARET'S CHURCH. LEGION WILL DECORATE GRAVES ON MONDAY.

On Sunday morning at 10 A. M. special memorial services will be held at St. Margaret's Church, on North Narberth avenue, to which the Narberth Post is especially invited. Members of the Legion Post and other ex-service men and women should arrive at the church by 9.45 so that they can enter in a body. Wear uniforms if possible. Do not stay away because you do not have a complete uniform, but come in civilian clothes.

A splendid program has been arranged, and let's have a turn-out that will do credit to the Legion and will indicate a keen appreciation of the efforts by the church in arranging these special services.

DECORATION OF GRAVES ON MEMORIAL DAY.

On Monday, May 30, at 9.30 A. M. all members of the Post will assemble at Elm Hall to go to the cemeteries to decorate the graves of ex-service men. The Legion ceremony will be conducted at the grave, including the firing squad. Automobile transportation will be required, and all Legion members with automobiles should make a special effort to be on hand. The people of Narberth are cordially invited to participate in these ceremonies. Those who can offer automobiles for use are requested to come to Elm Hall at the time specified, and if possible to call the Adjutant at Narberth 636 beforehand so that plans can be completed for the trip. Bring flowers if you can.

STATE FUNDS RECEIVED.

The Post has received a sum of money for use on Memorial Day from the Commissioners of Montgomery County as a result of a recent act of Legislature. This money is being used for floral decorations and grave markers. We thank the State and the County Commissioners.

GUARD AGAINST FUND SOLICITATION.

State headquarters have sent out a warning against a purported solicitation of funds for disabled soldiers at a future date to be known as National Disabled Soldiers' Week. That particular affair seems to be of suspicious character. The people of Narberth are requested to consult the Adjutant of the local Post whenever in doubt about any solicitation of funds to help ex-service men.

BOOK WORMS, ATTENTION.

Do not fail to take advantage of the library privileges which the Senior Club is offering you. Mrs. Wood, on Avon Road, will be glad to show you the selection of new and excellent fiction which the Club has on its library shelves. The Juniors, too, should feel an added interest in the library, since at the last meeting they voted to purchase several new books to add to the collection. Such an opportunity to read the best sellers so inexpensively is not to be overlooked, so stop on Avon Road some Friday evening between 7.00 and 8.00 o'clock—the Juniors' hour for using the library.

IT ALL DEPENDS ON THE WEATHER MAN

and, besides, you're out of order; I guess you don't know who's the chairman of this delegation!" retorted Mr. McCahill.

"I mean," Mr. Hall continued, entirely unmoved by the McCahill-Williams duet, "that if it doesn't rain any at all between now and Saturday noon—and you'd better put a time stamp on this—the three upper courts of our new tennis grounds will be ready, and I may say, yearning, to be played on this coming Saturday afternoon, May 28."

Whereupon the mob began disbanding, its component parts hurrying in the direction of their respective homes preparatory to getting out the old wet-stone and sharpening up their rackets.

Incidentally, the delay in completing the construction of the courts has been a matter of deep regret not only on the part of the members of the Association, but on the part of the Trustees and Mr. Lane, the contractor, as well. But, as one of the Trustees said this week:

been constructed, and it is, of course, a comparatively simple matter to get already-constructed courts in shape after the winter. But building entirely new courts is an altogether different kind of a proposition. When you're working in clay and it rains—well, you've simply got to hide your time and wait until the sun shines again. Mr. Lane, our contractor, is as anxious to finish the courts as our members are anxious for him to finish them. He knows how to build tennis courts, but he can't control the weather."

That about sizes up the situation. If Thursday, Friday and Saturday remain clear there will be playing this weekend on the three upper courts. But if the weather man permits any more rain to come down, then the opening of the new courts will have to go over until a later date.

ALL ABOARD.

say that this is some little kippy journal, too), the management of Steel Pier has engaged the Narberth Choral Society to sing at its semi-sacred concert on the opening night of the large Auditorium (holding 5,000) on the Pier on June 19.

Do you realize just what that means? That an organization of our little town of about 3,500 has received public musical recognition, and invited to sing to a final Steel Pier audience? Not that we don't realize that the Chorus is way above the average, but to be requested to appear on the platform only tread by professional artists and renowned soloists of the country, is stupendous in itself, not only as a big step forward for the Narberth Choral Society, but for the extraordinary publicity to be gained for the town. Talk about your Chamber of Commerce! We'll say the Narberth Chamber of Commerce had better elect the Narberth Choral Society as its chief honorary member!

Getting down to actual facts, this IS an unusual opportunity for the Narberth Choral Society to prove its metal, and the good will and wishes of the whole borough are right square behind it in its bristling efforts to reach a merited established footing in the musical world. And, in line with this good will of the community every one is asking—"WELL, WHY CAN'T WE GO DOWN WITH YOU?"

BLESS MY SOUL! AND SO YOU CAN, FAIR FRIENDS! A special train will be chartered to take the Choral Society and any other interested Narberthians direct from Narberth via the bridge route to Atlantic City, leaving Narberth about 1 o'clock June 19, and returning direct to Narberth from Atlantic City after the evening concert is finished. And this means there will be no troublesome changing at Broad Street Station, or at the ferry, or bothering with trolley cars, but just step into the special coaches at Narberth and arrive at Atlantic City like a real live President of the old U. S. A. can do it! OH, BOY! WON'T IT BE A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELING!

The departure from Narberth has been planned for 1 o'clock in order to permit every one to attend morning service, and then quietly proceed en route to the sacred concert on the Pier, whose audience for the most part is made up of Atlantic City's church people each Sunday evening.

The Chorus will go down almost as an entirety, excepting some few singers who are so situated with respect to church work that it renders it impossible for them to leave town.

Mr. Hillegas (Narberth 367 W) and Mr. W. J. Henderson (Narberth 603) are the committee in charge of reservations, so therefore fair booster, just call either one of these gentlemen on the telephone and he will supply you with any information desired. The fare will be about $5.00 RETURN TRIP, and with the special cars awaiting "our command," there will be no rush and bustle, but every one will be comfortably provided for.

As reservations MUST BE MADE THIS WEEK OR NOT LATER THAN NEXT WEEK, DO IT NOW, and lend your support to this splendid body of Narberth representatives. REMEMBER THE DATE—JUNE 19—AND MAKE YOUR RESERVATION AT ONCE.

DON'T FORGET!! Your 1921 County Tax!

Bills are NOW available. Unless it is paid by SEPTEMBER 15th it is delinquent and may cause you some little annoyance. In addition to every property owner, all other citizens (including, for the first time this year, the ladies) are subject to an Occupation Tax.

Write County Treasurer at Norristown, enclosing stamped, addressed return envelope for these bills. We are advised by the County Treasurer that he will have representatives at Narberth for the purpose of collecting this tax on June 1, 1921. Community Club Notes women have the destiny of the country in their hands. She congratulated the members on the charter and the principles it states as the standard of the Narberth Club.

It was a great treat to hear Livia Dawson Ward, of Lansdowne, render Hasselmann's "Priore" on the harp, and again "Clouds and Sunshine," by Oberthur. As an encore the "Music Box" seemed too real to be any instrument but a real music box.

The call for the year's reports of the various offices and departments was answered by the following officers and chairmen: Secretary, Mrs. N. Anderson; Treasurer, Mrs. Jesse Harris; Hospitality, Mrs. Wm. Livingston; Legislation, Mrs. A. B. Ross; Membership, Mrs. Horace Moore; Music, Mrs. A. B. Ross; Literature, Mrs. Robert Wood; Press, Mrs. H. A. Jacobs.

The toasts were given by Mrs. C. P. Fowler, to Miss Dale for Mr. Gibson, in honor of the charter; Mrs. Edward Muschamp, to the Board of Directors; Mrs. A. B. Ross, to the retiring officers; Mrs. N. Anderson, to the new officers; Mrs. Robert Wood, to the Library; Mrs. Wm. Nosh, to the Chorus; Mrs. Norman Southworth, to the Junior Club, and Mrs. A. B. Ross, to the President.

The President, Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, filled the chair with her usual good poise. There was an appropriate quotation for each department as she called for the toasts.

Mrs. John W. Joyce made the room gay by the floral decorations, and Mrs. William Livingston, with her many aides, served a generous and tasty luncheon.

GARDEN PARTY JUNE 7TH.

Those present at the luncheon heard the announcement of the Garden Party to be given by Mrs. Milton Alexander and Mrs. Harry Jacobs on the afternoon of June 7th, which is the regular club Tuesday. It will be held at two o'clock on the lawn at the corner of Elmwood and Wynnewood avenues, on the "South Side."

This promises to be a most jolly meet, and with many a brilliant fete. The charge of admission is small (fifty cents), and is for the purpose of swelling the building fund and having a jolly good time doing it.

JUNIOR SECTION WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB.

The last meeting of the Juniors was held at the Rowbotham residence, on Wayne avenue, on Thursday evening,

May 19th. A great deal of business was transacted, since this was the annual meeting, and election of officers for the succeeding year took place. The Club has decided to have two more meetings, one a regular business meeting, and the last an out-door picnic, at which the new officers are to be installed. Plans for tennis courts for the Club's use, and the advisability of giving a final dance before the close of the season were discussed. So, although the Club will formally stop its meetings through the summer, it plans to keep up the enjoyable social intercourse instigated among its members by various out-door activities during the warm weather.

And since the discussion of the site for our tennis court at the last meeting, the committee in charge of arrangements for this has had a wonderful piece of news to report. Through the extreme kindness and generosity of Mr. W. T. Harris, the Club has been given the use of one of the courts across from the station on the south side of the town, with no other obligation required than to keep it in playing condition for themselves. Though no official notice has been given of this fact to the Juniors, the news has rapidly spread to the eagerly waiting tennis fans of the Club, and we feel sure if Mr. Harris could view the enthusiasm with which the news of his gift is received, he would have no doubt of the Juniors' appreciation. The court will soon be in order, and the net up, and all Juniors, whether beginners, amateurs or experts, are urged to come out with their sister-members for a friendly set.

BRYN MAWR HOSPITAL BENEFIT GAME MONDAY.

given in another column, will be on hand, prepared to tag all spectators for the benefit of the Bryn Mawr Hospital. The admission charge will be 25 cents.

Narberth, 3; Wayne, 1.

By means of a ninth-inning rally, Narberth won her first game in the Main Line League schedule. The game, played at Wayne, was a close affair, and until the ninth inning Narberth was one point behind her opponents.

Eugene Davis, whose hit started the rally which gave the local team a victory, fractured his ankle in sliding to second base. He was taken to the Bryn Mawr Hospital. The injury, while not considered of a serious nature, will probably prevent him from playing for the rest of the season.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.
As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

Spring Flower Show classes of exhibits on first page.

Don't envy your neighbor's garden of hardy plants, make a note of the Peonies, Irises, Oriental Poppies and other hardy perennials that are blooming now and order them in the fall—September and October—the proper time for planting, or better still, order them from the nursery or dealer for delivery at the proper time.

The same applies to the early spring bulbs, which are planted in the fall for bloom the following spring.

Don't have a garden of regrets. Do it now.

See this column in issue of June 5th for first suggestions for planting and growing your dahlias.

THE ECONOMIC VALUE OF BIRDS.

THE SWALLOWS.

From time immemorial the swallow has been sung in song and story, and justly so, for in all the feathered kingdom surely nothing is more beautiful than their skimming, glancing flight.

It remained for the prosaic twentieth century to discover how really great is the debt of man to these harbingers of our summers. We realize now that without the swallows and flycatchers, and other birds that feed on the wing, the air around us would be unfit to breathe, so full would it be of gnats and other winged insects.

Housewives should be interested to know that about one-third of the food of the barn swallow consists of flies, and the cotton growers of the south owe the whole family a debt it would be difficult to repay. Probably the most destructive insect in the whole country is the cotton boll weevil. The swallows feed on it while in flight to new pastures, thus preventing the spread of the pest to unfested areas. The value of this service to the country in dollars, and even human life, would be hard to estimate.

Our most common swallows are the barn, known by his rusty breast, and the tree swallow, easily identified by his light gray breast.

The noisy martins, with their curious desire for colony life, belong to the swallow family.

They have a healthy appetite for some of the worst pests in agriculture, among them the striped cucumber beetle, which does great damage in our gardens.

Since it seems to thrive on poison, and can burrow in the ground when pursued, this little beetle can successfully defy the gardener. Yet it has been reported that in one martin house was found a quart of the hard parts of this pest, after the birds had dined upon the more edible portions.

Martins will also attack the chicken hawk at sight, so poultry raisers might do well to provide them with the apartment houses they like to occupy. Their numbers have been greatly reduced by the attacks of the English sparrow.

The common dull brown chimney swift, though like in habits to the swallows, does not belong to this family, but is valuable to us because it feeds entirely upon insects caught on the wing. The swift is able to roost in our chimneys because, like the wood-peckers, his sharp tail serves as a prop. He is also supplied with a sticky saliva, which enables him to glue his nest to our chimney walls. Sometimes this connection gives way, for once, to my dismay, as well as the parents, a nest and four young swifts descended suddenly into my, fortunately, empty fireplace. We did our best to replace the nest, but the birds refused to feed the young and abandoned them.

HOSPITAL TAG DAY COMMITTEES ANNOUNCED.

The committees have had workers call up on the phone and ask to be assigned some work on tag day, because they were anxious to help the hospital. These very people had been in the hospital—some for longer time than others, and they wanted to make it possible to have others helped in the same way.

The Tag Day is held during the Devon Horse Show and County Fair, which is also for the benefit of the Bryn Mawr Hospital, because it is the desire of the committee in charge to concentrate on this week, known as the "Bryn Mawr Hospital Week." It is the intention of the committee to set this week aside each year, and to appeal to all organizations along the Main Line to help the hospital during this week.

With this thought in mind, the Main Line League will play benefit baseball games, both Saturday and Monday, at Narberth, Ardmore, Highland Park, Bryn Mawr, Wayne, and Berwyn. Groups of young women will appear on the grounds with tags, and the purchase of a tag will be equivalent to an admission.

Civic Associations, Women's Clubs, League of Women Voters, Home and School Associations, and others have responded to the appeal of the general committee. They have organized committees to cover Bala-Cynwyd, Merion, Narberth, Wynnewood, Ardmore, Bryn Mawr, Haverford, Rosemont and Wayne.

The Boy Scouts of Merion, Narberth, Ardmore, Bryn Mawr, Ithan, and Wayne are helping the committee by distributing literature and helping at the Fair.

THE FIRESIDE

They will remain abroad until Christmas.

Miss Ruth Prescott is entertaining a number of her friends at a house party in the Prescott bungalow at Ocean City from Friday until Tuesday, over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Earle Clarke, of Dudley avenue, on their return from Staten Island, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Baker and Mrs. John Burroughs. The trip to Narberth was made by motor.

At a linen shower held at the home of Miss Marian Haws, on Dudley avenue, Mrs. Edwin A. Anderson received dozens of handsome and useful articles. Many friends of Mrs. Anderson, formerly Miss Nellie Cook, were present from Philadelphia.
